Midland – Creative 360 opens its stage to comedy and improvisation featuring local talent on Friday evening, June 25, at 7 pm. The audience will be surrounded by the art exhibit “Anniversaries: Looking Back, Looking Forward,” featuring visual art of mid-Michigan residents age 55 and older. This affordable family activity also features access to free play in the outdoor space at Creative 360, with woods, lawn, and pavilion.

Smoothies and snacks by Grounds for a Better World will be available for purchase.

About Creative 360

Creative 360, formerly known as Creative Spirit Center, is a not-for-profit community arts and wellness organization celebrating its 15th anniversary in 2010. The Center’s mission is to create an environment for people of all ages to experience the creative process through ongoing classes, art exhibits, events, concerts, speakers and outreach programs; and its goal is to enhance the development of physical, mental and spiritual wellness through the arts and humanities. Visit www.becreative360.org for more information about the offerings at Creative 360, or call (989) 837-1885 to request a mailed copy of the current schedule.
