Midland – Run by students for students, the Midland High School Drama Camp at Creative 360, under the coordination of Josh Fridstrom and Gaia Klotz, invites elementary students to their first-ever drama camp. The high school students will help each camper learn about acting, set construction, makeup, stage combat, and costume design. The campers will put on a show at the end of the week for their parents and friends. Class size is limited to 15 students. This camp is for upcoming 1st – 5th graders. Lunch daily and all materials are provided.

About Creative 360

Creative 360, formerly known as Creative Spirit Center, is a not-for-profit community arts and wellness organization celebrating its 15th anniversary in 2010. The Center's mission is to create an environment for people of all ages to experience the creative process through ongoing classes, art exhibits, events, concerts, speakers and outreach programs; and its goal is to enhance the development of physical, mental and spiritual wellness through the arts and humanities.
