[Midland] – Middle school and high school students will model their designs of clothing and accessories using recyclable materials at a fashion show on Earth Day. The public is invited to attend the Eco-Chic Fashion Show on Wednesday, April 22, at 6 pm at Creative 360 in Midland. Free admission includes eco-friendly snacks, and donation proceeds will benefit the Midland Volunteers for Recycling. The event is sponsored by the Midland County Youth Action Council of the Midland Area Community Foundation, made possible through the Council of Michigan Foundations and supported by a grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation.

About Midland Volunteers for Recycling

This non-profit organization's goals are to educate the community on resource conservation through waste reduction, reuse, and recycling; to conserve resources by giving residents and businesses an opportunity to recycle by operating the Midland Volunteers for Recycling Center where materials, including many not accepted elsewhere, are accepted and processed; to provide volunteer and work experience opportunities to individuals of all ages and abilities; and to offer cost efficient waste reduction and document destruction options to residents and small businesses.

About Creative 360

Creative 360, formerly known as Creative Spirit Center, is a not-for-profit community arts and wellness organization founded in 1994. The Center's mission is to create an environment for people of all ages to experience the creative process through ongoing classes, conferences, concerts, speakers and outreach programs; and its goal is to enhance the development of physical, psychological and spiritual wellness through the arts and humanities. Printed Summer 2009 schedules showing all classes and events at Creative 360 are available at no charge. Telephone 837-1885 to have schedules delivered to your business or location, or mailed to your home.
