[Midland] – A ribbon-cutting with the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors will be held at 11.30 am at Creative 360, 1517 Bayliss Street in Midland. The event celebrates the completion of an outdoor performance pavilion designed to host concerts, plays, neighborhood events, and an imagination zone for children and youth. The pavilion, designed by Thad Hallberg of Hallberg Designs, was constructed with financial support from the Midland Area Community Foundation, and volunteers recruited by Midland Eagle Scout candidate Josh Angus.

The funds from the Midland Area Community Foundation were awarded through its Unrestricted Endowment Fund and also through its Midland County Youth Action Council (MCYAC) project. MCYAC is made possible through the Council of Michigan Foundations and supported by a grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation. The Midland Area Community Foundation strengthens our community by providing leadership, fostering collaboration on local needs and issues, and encouraging a legacy of giving through grants, scholarships, and events.
