Midland – Creative 360's Artist Soiree returns with a dinner featuring artist Kathleen Sullivan on Friday, April 8 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Held in Creative 360's gallery, the Artist Soiree is an evening during which Great Lakes Bay Region artists, singers, musicians and writers talk about and share their creative process.

Artist Kathleen Sullivan will share insight into her creative process. Sullivan studied at Central Michigan University (MFA) and Massachusetts College of Art (BFA). Her works have appeared in the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, the Saginaw Art Museum, Midland Center for the Arts, Saginaw Valley State University, Kirtland Community College, Northwood Gallery, and Creative 360, among many others. She has taught Drawing at Central Michigan University, Northwood University, and privately to adults, High School and Middle School students.

Tickets are $45, which includes dinner, wine and a presentation by Sullivan, whose work will also be exhibited in the gallery. Tickets are available at <http://www.becreative360.org> or by phone at 989-837-1885.
