[Midland] – Creative 360 expands its summer art camp offerings in 2009, with nine full-day and two half-day camps. Working parents can take advantage of drop-off before 9 am and pick-up after 5 pm for full-day camps. Children can select from creativity camps that include integrated arts experiences in painting, drawing, movement, theater, stage scenery construction, singing, design, crafts, and animation. On Friday of each week, campers will showcase their artwork and creative experiences for family and friends. The 3-acre campus of Creative 360 offers indoor and outdoor camp spaces, including imaginative play in our small wooded area; and campers take morning and afternoon supervised hikes to the playground in the adjacent City of Midland's Theis Park. The camps take place in an environment filled with art and the work of many local creatives. Full and partial camp scholarships are available, thanks to the family of Susie Giering and other generous donors.

Instructors Emma Johnson, Jan List, Alejandra Gallegos, Cassie Stauffer, Olga Mulvaney and Gaia Klotz bring a wide range of practice and teaching experience in the integrated arts and promise an engaging, energetic and memorable art camp experience for children and youth aged 5 – 14. Campers will experience, express, and expand their creativity in new ways, in a healthy, fun and friendly environment.

Full details of all summer art camps can be viewed at www.becreative360.org.

About Creative 360

Creative 360, formerly Creative Spirit Center, is a not-for-profit community arts and wellness organization founded in 1994. The Center's mission is to create an environment for people of all ages to experience the creative process through ongoing classes, exhibits, events, concerts, speakers and outreach programs; and its goal is to enhance the development of physical, psychological and spiritual wellness through the arts and humanities. Printed Summer 2009 schedules showing all classes and events at Creative 360 are available at no charge. Telephone 837-1885 to have schedules delivered to your business or location, or mailed to your home.
